

High Desert Food & Farm Alliance

Volunteer Job Description

Job Title: Directory Distribution

Position Summary:

Every May we will publish our annual High Desert Food & Farm Directory, a community resource with information on ways to find and access Central Oregon food. Between 30,000-40,000 copies of the Directory are printed and released as an insert in the Bulletin and also distributed to HDEFFA partners and sites throughout Central Oregon. We need individual(s) who are willing to distribute the directories to our partners and other distribution sites. A distributor for each county would be preferred.

Duties:

- Distribute the Food & Farm Directory in Deschutes, Jefferson, and Crook Counties.

Qualifications:

- 18+years. Own transportation needed.
- Interest in promoting the local food movement and engaging the public in local farm and food opportunities
- Clearly communicate HDEFFA's mission and purpose

Time Commitment: This position would be very flexible. Distribution would be essential in May; additional visits to distribution points could happen through out the year.

Resources Provided: Orientation to program and HDEFFA activities. Directories and drop off points provided.

*Note: HDEFFA does not reimburse expenses incurred by volunteers in driving to the course (gas, parking fees, tickets or costs resulting from an accident).

How does this help the High Desert Food & Farm Alliance? The Food & Farm Directory is essential to increasing consumer demand for local food. This position supports HDEFFA's mission and supports farmers and ranchers by increasing circulation of the Directory.
