High Desert Food & Farm Alliance

Job Title: Program Director

Location: based in Bend, Oregon – work throughout Central Oregon

Compensation: $55,000-$62,000

Start Date: Open until the ideal candidate is found.

The High Desert Food and Farm Alliance (HDFFA) is a non-profit whose mission is to support a healthy and thriving food and farm network in Central Oregon through education, collaboration and inclusivity. We meet our mission by fostering relationships between producers (farmers, ranchers and food businesses) and consumers, increasing awareness of and access to food from our region, and cultivating community participation with local food. We serve farmers, ranchers, food businesses, nonprofits and underserved families in the high desert region of Crook, Deschutes and Jefferson Counties. We believe everyone deserves good food.

We offer four core program areas: Grow & Give, a fresh food donation and on-farm gleaning program; VeggieRx, a fresh vegetable and fruit prescription program; Agricultural Support for farmers and ranchers; and our annual online and print High Desert Food & Farm Directory.

Position Summary
HDFFA is seeking a passionate and extremely organized full-time Program Director to oversee and manage our programs: Food Access, VeggieRx, Agricultural Support, and the annual Food & Farm Directory. The Director oversees a dynamic team of staff members who work in collaboration with many stakeholders. They will directly report to the Executive Director.

Ideal Candidate
The ideal candidate is committed to local food and farms and has experience working in rural regions, preferably within Central Oregon. They will enjoy working with a dynamic team and have supervision experience. They must have grant and program management experience, be able to write grants, and have the skills to work collaboratively with partner organizations including public and private agencies, agricultural producers, and food businesses. They should be familiar with diversity, equity and inclusion principles and be willing to engage and learn. They will work closely with the Executive Director.
